

2017: Advanced Academy Information and Application

The Nebraska Victim Assistance Academy is pleased to be offering its first annual Advanced Academy. It will be held on Tuesday, April 25th at the Firespring Center, 1201 Infinity Court, Lincoln, NE, and will take place from 2-5pm after the Annual Crime Victims Awards luncheon at the Governor's mansion. The academy will feature Ree Rimers, from Project Harmony, who talk about Trauma-Informed Leadership, including modules on Self Care, Professional Quality of Life and Reflective Supervision. There is no charge for this training, but registration is required. A certificate of completion will be given to all participants.

About the Presenter:

Ree Reimers

Reimers has worked for Project Harmony as a training specialist for the last 2 years. Prior to that, she worked in the Child Welfare field for 10 years with a focus on Child Protection. She worked the last 5 years as a supervisor for the Department of Health and Human Services supervising both ongoing case managers and initial assessment workers. She has a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Nebraska-Omaha and is currently working on her Masters in Social Work at the University of Nebraska-Omaha. In her role at Project Harmony, Ree provides training on various topics to include Child Abuse Prevention, Early Childhood Abuse, Trauma, Identifying Child Abuse, and Compassion Fatigue & Self-Care.
