Registration Information

To register, please use this link: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/FundOfAdvFall2014>. If you are unable to register online, please contact Michelle Zinke, Training and Resource Coordinator, at 402-476-6256 or michellez@ndvsac.org. Participants can attend just Part I or Part II of the training. However, people are strongly encouraged to attend both sections of the training. Registration deadline is Thursday, September 11.

Logistical Information

There is no registration fee. However, participants are responsible for all other costs associated with the training (i.e., mileage, hotel accommodations, meal costs). Due to changes in Department of Justice grant guidelines, the Coalition is no longer able to provide beverages or snacks of any kind. The Holiday Inn Express will provide coffee and water as part of the training room rental. There are vending machines for additional beverage and snack options. A complimentary breakfast is provided for hotel guests. Other meals are on your own.

Please note that the primary audience of this training is staff and volunteers of local domestic violence and sexual assault programs. However, the training is being opened to other organizations wishing to enhance their response to victims and survivors of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking.
